

Who qualifies for services?

The Counseling Center offers short-term individual counseling, couples counseling, group sessions, consultations, and referrals to currently registered students. Services have no charge for TAMU students.