

CREDIT BY EXAMINATION

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Texas A&M University allows students to receive a maximum of thirty-three (33) semester hours of credit by examination for specified freshman and sophomore level courses. The University awards credit for scores on certain tests listed in the Catalog. Texas A&M International University also offers eligible students opportunities to earn credits by taking departmental examinations listed in the Catalog as authorized by the appropriate faculty. Regulations concerning credit by examination include: (Cat 14-15 <http://www.tamtu.edu/catalog/current/>)

1. Students may not receive credit by examination for courses that are prerequisites to courses for which they already have credit except with the approval of the department authorizing the examination and the Dean of the student's College.
2. Students may not receive credit by examination for courses in which they have been enrolled through the first class day.
3. Students will not be eligible for exam credit in a course if they have already taken a more advanced course in that area unless otherwise designated by the Chair of the department in which the subject is offered.
4. Students who are not successful on an examination may not retake it and must enroll in the course to receive credit.
5. Students must be officially enrolled at Texas A&M International University to receive official credit with a grade of "CR" or a letter grade. This grade option will be available only in certain disciplines.

Students must select TAMIU as school recipient in order to receive credit to be posted on TAMIU transcript. The Testing Center does not report CLEP scores to the Office of the University Registrar for posting on the student transcript.
